

The Cathy Enright Scholarship was established to help advance the aquaculture industry through supporting students demonstrating outstanding research work related to the industry.

CATHY ENRIGHT SCHOLARSHIP

2017 SUBMISSIONS

Cathy Enright is a retired professor from the former Nova Scotia Agriculture College (now known as Dalhousie University Agricultural Campus) and is a lifetime member of the Aquaculture Association of Nova Scotia (AANS).

AQUACULTURE
ASSOCIATION
OF CANADA

ASSOCIATION
AQUACOLE
DU CANADA

Aquaculture Canada & SEA FARMERS
Conference & Tradeshow
Halifax, NS May 28-31, 2017.

For more information visit
seafarmers.ca/events

Process: A panel of judges will review the abstracts and the top four candidates will be notified via email by May 5th. Students will be judged during their presentations at AC/SF 2017.

Scholarship Details

Prize: $1,000 scholarship

Who: honors and masters students studying in NS who are conducting research projects related to aquaculture (any field)

students who have already defended their thesis are still eligible to apply

Deadline: April 13, 2017

How: submit a 200-word abstract to Melissa Rommens, at melissa@sustainaqua.ca

About the Aquaculture Association of Nova Scotia

AANS was formed in 1977 and is governed by an elected board of directors and is mandated to develop viable businesses, defend the industry's position within government, secure funding, promote responsible aquaculture and assist with improving existing operations.

